You want to move, you want a show, you want dynamite ? We got Wayne Beckford for you. Songwriter, composer, arranger and producer, Wayne 'Beatoven' Beckford has worked with some of the main international urban artists such as Akon, Robyn, T-Pain, Seal, Beenie Man, Slum Village, Blue, Beverly Knight, UB40 and many more. He has earned his reputation as a renaissance man of European urban music. In 2009, focusing on his own carrier as a singer, he recorded his first personal album 'Change'. Beckford plays the guitar, bass, drums and can really sing too ! A mix of funk, pop, R'n'B, reggae and club music, the album 'Change' is a clever and powerful musical crossover. The industry is longing for Change – the new sound that will bring a revolution for pop and urban music !
